

Choice Based Credit System (CBCS)

HIMACHAL PRADESH UNIVERSITY

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMME

(Courses effective from the Academic Year 2016)

COURSES OFFERED

Outline of Choice Based Credit System

1. Core Course: A course, which should compulsorily be studied by a candidate as a core requirement is termed as a Core course.

2. Elective Course: Generally a course which can be chosen from a pool of courses and which maybe very specific or specialized or advanced or supportive to the discipline/ subject of study or which provides an extended scope or which enables an exposure to some other discipline/subject/domain or nurtures the candidate's proficiency/skill is called an Elective Course.

2.1 Discipline Specific Elective (DSE) Course: Elective courses may be offered by the main discipline/subject of study is referred to as Discipline Specific Elective. The University/Institute may also offer discipline related Elective courses of interdisciplinary nature (to be offered by main discipline/subject of study).

2.2 Dissertation/Project: An elective course designed to acquire special/advanced knowledge, such as supplement study/support study to a project work, and a candidate studies such a course on his own with an advisory support by a teacher/faculty member is called dissertation/project.

2.3 Generic Elective (GE) Course: An elective course chosen generally from an unrelated discipline/subject, with an intention to seek exposure is called a Generic Elective.

P.S.: A core course offered in a discipline/subject may be treated as an elective by other discipline/subject and vice versa and such electives may also be referred to as Generic Elective.

3. Ability Enhancement Courses (AEC)/Competency Improvement Courses/Skill Development

Courses/Foundation Course: The Ability Enhancement (AE) Courses may be of two kinds: AE Compulsory Course (AECC) and AE Elective Course (AEEC). "AECC" courses are the courses based upon the content that leads to Knowledge enhancement. They ((i) Environmental Science, (ii) English/MIL Communication) are mandatory for all disciplines. AEEC courses are value-based and/or skill-based and are aimed at providing hands-on-training, competencies, skills, etc.

3.1 AE Compulsory Course (AECC): Environmental Science, English Communication, Hindi/MIL Communication.

3.2 AE Elective Course (AEEC): These courses may be chosen from a pool of courses designed to provide value-based and/or skill-based instruction.

Project work/Dissertation is considered as a special course involving application of knowledge in solving / analyzing /exploring a real life situation / difficult problem. A Project/Dissertation work would be of 6 credits. A Project/Dissertation work may be given in lieu of a discipline specific elective paper

Ability Enhancement Compulsory Course

English/MIL Communication Advanced English: Stream A

For all B.A., B.Com., B.Sc., Regular and Honours Students

Course objectives

The course enhances the skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening. It encourages recognition and awareness of different genres like the short story, poetry, feature articles, etc. Topical and social themes form an integral part of the course. The course teaches the students speaking and listening skills in class and tests these skills for a constant monitoring of their proficiency. The course broadens the horizons of the text by project work which is flexible, and enhances the creativity of the student. The course uses activities centred on translation for students, and gives them a composite view of multiculturalism.

By the end of the two-semester course the learner should have sufficient vocabulary to read and understand biographical sketches, narratives, write coherently, summarise and understand tape scripts/read-aloud, speak fluently and narrate at length with minimal errors in syntax.
